HAVE YOU PLANNED FOR AND CONSIDERED THE COST OF IMPLEMENTING YOUR EMERGENCY PLAN?

Location: American Museum of Natural History, Kaufman Theater
Tuesday, November 29, 9:00 – 10:30 am
(Enter at the 77th street entrance, between Columbus Avenue and Central Park West)

RSVP Rebecca.fifield@metmuseum.org

As planners we understand that the restoration and recovery phases of an emergency plan are critical to the survival of our organization. But many times we fail to plan for the financial cost of implementing the plan or assume that it is covered by insurance.

The panel speakers will discuss their experiences in helping cultural institutions and private collectors recover from a disaster. They will discuss the costs associated with stabilizing, restoring and or protecting collections. They will discuss insurance options available to assist in covering some of these costs.

Panel speakers:

- James Gilbert, American Technologies
- Mary Sheridan , Chubb Insurance, Asst Global Fine Arts Manager
- Nicole Sheley, NS International, Adjuster/ Risk Control

Alliance for Response, NYC is a local organization focused on connecting emergency responders with representatives of the cultural heritage community. Our goal is to strengthen mitigation and response capabilities through training exercises, development of local planning efforts and improved dialogue and partnerships. The organization is composed of staff from cultural institutions (security, facilities, health/safety, collections/conservation, and administration), first responders (NYPD, FDNY, OEM, FEMA) and related industries (insurance/risk management, recovery companies).
